VERNON S. BRODERICK, United States District Judge:

I held a show cause hearing on October 28, 2022 to determine whether Defendants should be enjoined from enforcing Penal Law 265.01-e(2)(c) during the pendency of this action. During the hearing, I requested that Plaintiffs provide supplemental declarations on the factual questions and issues I raised in my Order dated October 27, 2022 (“October 27 Order”) and during the October 27 show cause hearing. (Doc. 57.) It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs submit supplemental declarations from the individual plaintiffs answering the questions contained in my October 27 Order and/or raised during the hearing today. If Defendants wish to reply to the supplemental declarations, they must file a letter explaining why they believe a sur-reply is necessary and appropriate.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs attach clear and legible copies of their firearm licenses to their supplemental declarations, including any firearms licenses from other states. To the extent that there is information that Plaintiffs believe should be redacted from the licenses, they should consult my individual rules regarding the procedures concerning redactions and filing under seal.

SO ORDERED.
